

Acknowledgements

CNGO would like to thank the many partners who contributed to the project and shared their reflections on the lessons learned over the first four years of the project. These partners include:

District NGOs:

Doti: Equality Development Centre

Dadeldhura: Multipurpose Development Society, Women Deliverance Society

Surkhet: Environment Development Society, Women Association for Marginalized Women

Bara: Seto Gurans Child Development Service, Public Awareness Raising Campaign

Sarlahi: Association of Rural Women Upliftment, Village Community Development Centre

Mahottari: Rural Community Development Service Council, Women Cultural Development Centre

Partners of Participating NGOs (PPNGOs) and the Gender Allies in each district.

Local government partners in each district: DDC, WDS, Agriculture Office, Health Office, Education Office, Drinking Water Office, Livestock Development Office, Cooperative Office, VDCs, and Municipalities.

Partners in HMGN: Social Welfare Council, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Local Development, Ministry for Women, Children and Social Welfare, and the National Planning Commission.

Resource organizations and consultants: Sam Bikas Abhiyan Nepal (SBAN), Didi Bahini, Hari Bastola, Ram Neupane, Raghav Regmi.

Staff at the Canadian Cooperation Office.

The team who led the consultations to identify lessons learned, collected materials, reviewed drafts, and wrote, edited, translated, and laid out the final product include: Hari Bastola, Jyoti Danuwar, Barbara Duffield, Irada Gautam, Barbara Hoffman, Chris Hunter, Linda Pennells, Kamal Sharma, Mahendra Laxmi Sharma, Binu Maya Thapa, Pragya Singh, Joy Steemers and Binod Ale.

Printing: Hill Side Press (P) Ltd., Kathmandu

October 2004